

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

David Christopher Nordlund,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13607

Order

Date of Order: July 12, 2021

---

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-19-04232CR

Before: Allard, Chief Judge, and Wollenberg and Harbison, Judges

The Appellant, David Nordlund, has two merit appeals pending in this Court — one in File No. A-13607, and one in File No. A-13783. In each case, he has also filed pro se bail appeals, challenging the superior court’s denial of his motions for bail release pending the resolution of those merit appeals. The State, however, has recently informed this Court that Nordlund is no longer incarcerated, and has been released on parole. The VINE database confirms the State’s information regarding Nordlund’s custodial status. See <https://vinelink.vineapps.com/state/AK>.

Because Nordlund is no longer incarcerated, it appears that Nordlund’s bail appeals are moot — that is, Nordlund would not be entitled to any relief even if he were to prevail. Therefore, this Court intends to dismiss both bail appeals unless Nordlund can show good cause for not doing so.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED:

On or before August 9, 2021, Nordlund may file a pleading explaining why this Court should not dismiss his bail appeals. The pleading shall not exceed ten pages.

Nordlund v. State - p. 2
File No. A-13607
July 12, 2021

If Nordlund fails to file a response, or a motion to extension the deadline for filing a response, by that date, we intend to dismiss his pending bail motions.
